Subject: Microsoft Settlement

Hi,

For your information I just received the following email from ACT. I am sure that Microsoft is funding ACT. As a small software company who has worked closely with Microsoft and as a consumer in my opinion Microsoft has been guilty of any number of illegal activities related to price fixing and illegal trade practices.

It's time to get back to work: Your comments can encourage approval of the proposed settlement in the Microsoft case.

Your opinion on the proposed settlement between Microsoft, the federal government, and nine states is due by January 28, 2002.

Click here to find out more!

Under the Tunney Act, a law that encourages public comment on a proposed settlement, the trial judge reviews comments to help determine whether this settlement is in the public interest. All comments submitted will become part of the public record.

Helpful information for developing your comments:

http://www.actonline.org/press_room/releases/110501.asp ACT's analysis of the proposed settlement
<http://www.usdoj.gov/atr/cases/ms-settle.htm#submit> Information from the U.S. Department of Justice

Three ways to submit your comments to Judge Colleen Kollar-Kotelly:

1. Send a fax to: 1-202-307-1454 or 1-202-616-9937
2. Mail a letter. Please note, however, that the Justice Department strongly encourages that comments be submitted via e-mail or fax, given recent mail delivery interruptions in Washington. Letter mail should be addressed to:

Renata B. Hesse
Antitrust Division, U.S. Department of Justice
601 D. Street NW. Suite 1200
Washington, DC 20530-0001

3. Send an email. If you send the email on your own, please address to <mailto:Microsoft.atr@usdoj.gov> and use "Microsoft Settlement" as your subject line. Or, see <http://www.actonline.org/action/settlement.asp> <http://www.actonline.org/action/settlement.asp> for on-line form to send your email.

Sincerely,

Jonathan Zuck
